

Succeeding at Interviews

Do yourself justice when it matters

Are you tired of walking out of an interview feeling like you didn't really shine?

Our Succeeding at Interviews will give you the skills and confidence to show what you're capable of in any situation.

This 2-day workshop equips people of all professional backgrounds with practical tools and self-belief to stand out no matter the questions asked.

Includes

- ✓ Developing your unique personal brand
- ✓ How to convey your strengths in a matter-of-fact way
- ✓ Tips for maximising your memorability and impact
- ✓ Demonstrating your suitability for the job you want
- ✓ Interview practice with feedback

“The feedback I got from my interview was that I was really clear about who I was and what I had to offer, and I was able to deliver that in a way which resonated with the interview panel”

Julie Lindsay - Head of UCICC, DWP

Succeeding at Interviews

The workshop learnings are equally applicable to formal and informal interviews, applications and CVs.

Participants will be shown how to identify and communicate their strengths, and to effectively convey their suitability for the position they want.

Through filmed practice interviews, participants see themselves as others see them. Feedback from peers and facilitators helps individuals make the best possible impression when it comes to the real thing.

“I now have a personal brand that reflects what drives and motivates me about my work and the qualities and behaviours I want to model.”

Cécile Ogwudire - Strategy Adviser, Government Equalities Office
